1. The Niewiadów Armsament Factory is located in a forest one kilometer north of Ujazd village (Q52/P21), approximately 200 meters east of Tomaszów Mazowiecki, toward the Koluski railroad station. The factory was built before World War II and was bombed in the first days of the war. Only the administration building was hit.
2. The factory was used by the Germans throughout the war. After the war it was rebuilt by the Poles and is now making small aerial bombs (exact type unknown). The plant employs approximately 200 people and all must sign the secrecy agreement. The average wage is about 1,000zloty a month. The quantity of production is not known.
